Primary Purpose of Organizational Unit and Position Summary.

The Office of University Counsel represents the University, which entails providing legal advice and counsel to the Board of Trustees, the Chancellor, the administration, faculty, and staff on legal matters involving or affecting the institution. We advise the University administration on a broad range of initiatives, issues, and policy matters, and serve as a liaison between the University and its related and affiliated entities on legal and policy issues. We also assist with program implementation and provide legal and policy training for internal University audiences and educational programs for legal audiences and general audiences outside the institution on matters affecting the University and higher education in general. We engage in crisis and opportunity management and preventative counseling, including the identification of high-risk activities and enterprises conducted by the University and the articulation of methodologies or strategies for coping with the risks. We advocate for the University in state and federal courts, administrative proceedings, and regulatory settings. Our Office is responsible for selecting and supervising any outside counsel engaged by the institution.

The Assistant University Counsel will report to the Senior University Transactions Counsel. This position will engage in broad transactional practice supporting the University in a variety of matters. The Assistant University Counsel will review, draft, and negotiate facilities use agreements, releases, internship and affiliation agreements, non-disclosure agreements, exhibition and performance/speaker agreements, and revenue generating agreements. The Assistant University Counsel will also provide legal support as needed or assigned for services agreements, IT and non-IT vendor agreements, consulting arrangements, equipment loans, lease agreements, collaborator agreements, and executive search firm agreements. This position may also advise on business or policy issues related to their general transactional practice and will advise units on the development and management of templated agreements. The Assistant University Counsel collaborates with multiple University units to ensure compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and institutional policies, while also contributing to the development and implementation of best practices in transactional matters.

Minimum Education and Experience Requirements

Relevant post-Baccalaureate degree required (or foreign degree equivalent) with three years or greater of related professional experience; for candidates demonstrating comparable professional backgrounds, will accept a relevant Bachelor's degree (or foreign degree equivalent) and five years or greater of relevant experience in substitution.

Required Qualifications, Competencies, and Experience

Graduation from an accredited school of law. Be a licensed attorney in good standing in North Carolina or able to become one within one year of joining the University.

Preferred Qualifications, Competencies, and Experience

Transactional and/or contractual legal practice experience ranging from 1-4 years. Experience working for a public agency or educational institution. Knowledge of and experience negotiating information technology contracts. Ability to develop plans to accomplish unit objectives and requirements. Experience developing and/or managing templated agreements.
